1. Always make sure the power is off before inserting or removing the Game Pak.
2. Don't try to take the Game Pak apart, or touch its terminal connectors.
3. Keep your Game Pak safe from direct sunlight and extreme hot or cold. Don't bend it, crush it, or get it wet. Store it in its protective package at room temperature when you're not using it.
4. If your Game Pak gets dusty, clean it with a soft, dry cloth. Never use thinners, solvents, benzene, alcohol, or other strong cleaning agents that can damage it.
5. For the best game play, sit 3 to 6 feet away from your television. Pause for 10 to 20 minutes after 2 hours of continuous play to extend the life of your Game Pak.

WARNING: DO NOT USE WITH FRONT OR REAR PROJECTION TV!

Do not use a front or rear projection television with your Nintendo Entertainment System® (NES™) and NES games. Your projection television screen may be permanently damaged if video games with stationary scenes or patterns are played on your projection television. Similar damage may occur if you place a video game on hold or pause, if you use your projection television with NES games. Nintendo will not be liable for any damage. This situation is not caused by a defect in the NES or NES games; other fixed or repetitive images may cause similar damage to a projection television. Please contact your TV manufacturer for further information.

Baloo will loop-de-loop, swoop and flip to dodge his daring enemies. He'll also pick up bags of money, and drop in at Wildcat's hangar for a quick fixer-upper. He's got to be a frisky flyer to dodge the cannonballs, bones, and baseballs – among other things – that the air pirates shoot his way.

The hearts in the upper left corner of the screen show how strong the Mini Sea-Duck is. Each time the plane gets hit, a heart will disappear. When all the hearts are gone, so is the Mini Sea-Duck. Baloo must parachute to safety!

When Baloo must dodge or shoot down all the air pirates to make it to the end of the trip. Then he'll meet up with an enormous pirate who's hard to defeat. Baloo must get rid of him, too, in order to finish the trip.
